6. Confidentiality

6.1 We and you shall only disclose such Confidential Information to the other party as is necessary for the exercise of that party's rights, or the performance of its obligations, under this Agreement.

6.2 Each party undertakes that it shall not during the term of this agreement or at any time thereafter use, divulge or communicate to any person, except its employees, professional representatives or advisers or as may be required by law or any legal or Relevant Authority, any Confidential Information concerning the other party which may have or may in future come to its knowledge and each of the parties shall use its reasonable endeavours to prevent the publication or disclosure of any Confidential Information.

6.3 For the purposes of this clause, "Confidential Information" means, in relation to a party to which this clause applies, all information relating to this agreement and its existence and to the business, customers, financial or other affairs of that party which is not in the public domain.

7. Data Protection

7.1 Some information that you and we hold in relation to any customer or Advisor will be Personal Data for the purposes of UK Data Protection Laws. You and we are each separate Data Controllers in relation to the Personal Data we each hold and process in relation to our respective activities. You and we undertake to comply with the UK Data Protection Laws in all respects as it relates to the Personal Data we both hold and Process as Data Controllers. You and we will keep any information including Personal Data you provide to us or we provide to you as confidential and will not disclose this to any other person unless required to do so by law or where the information is required to be disclosed to our agents or third parties involved in the processing or administration of any Application or the administration of the activities envisaged by this agreement.

7.2 Where either of us is responsible for collecting and transferring Personal Data to the other, each of us shall ensure that (i) we are not subject to any prohibition or restriction which would prevent or restrict us from disclosing or transferring the Personal Data to the other and (ii) that we maintain a record of all processing activities under this agreement.

7.3 You and we will ensure that Personal Data is adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary for the purposes of performing our obligations under this agreement and you and we will both maintain appropriate technical, security and organisational measures to guard against unauthorised or unlawful access to, or accidental loss of, personal data or confidential information and notify each other without due delay of the occurrence of any such event.

7.4 Each party will provide Customers with information about how they will use their Personal Data as part of the Application process for a Mortgage Product in accordance with UK Data Protection Laws.

7.5 We will use the information provided to us about you and your Advisors for all administrative purposes associated with the activities envisaged by this agreement including allocating, monitoring and managing Advisor credentials; verification, analysis, and auditing of any Application submitted to us; conducting market research, statistical analysis and marketing plans; keeping you and your Advisors informed about changes to our Products, Processes and Policies; fraud and money laundering prevention; verification and searches against you and your Advisors against public and other databases (including Credit Reference Agencies). Further detail about how we will use Personal Data information is set out in our published privacy policies.

7.6 If you are required to Process any Personal Data as a Processor on our behalf you and we shall enter into an appropriate Processing agreement in compliance with Data Protection Laws
